
TRUSTEE CODE OF CONDUCT SANCTIONS

1. Trustees will conduct themselves in an ethical and prudent manner in compliance with the Trustee Code of Conduct, Policy 4. The failure by trustees to conduct themselves in compliance with this policy may result in the Board instituting sanctions.
2. A trustee who believes that a fellow trustee has violated the Code of Conduct may seek resolution of the matter through appropriate conciliatory measures prior to commencing an official complaint under the Code of Conduct.
3. A trustee who wishes to commence an official complaint, under the Code of Conduct will file a letter of complaint with the Board Chair within thirty (30) days of the alleged event or knowledge of the event occurring and indicate the nature of the complaint and the section or sections of the Code of Conduct that are alleged to have been violated by the trustee. The trustee who is alleged to have violated the Code of Conduct and all other trustees will be forwarded a copy of the letter of complaint by the Board Chair, or where otherwise applicable in what follows, by the Vice-Chair, within five (5) days of receipt by the Board Chair of the letter of complaint. If the complaint is with respect to the conduct of the Board Chair, the letter of complaint will be filed with the Vice-Chair.
4. When a trustee files a letter of complaint, and a copy of that letter of complaint is forwarded to all trustees; the filing, notification, content and nature of the complaint will be deemed to be strictly confidential, the public disclosure of which will be deemed to be a violation of the Code of Conduct. Public disclosure of the complaint and any resulting decision taken by the Board may be disclosed by the Board Chair only at the direction of the Board, following the disposition of the complaint by the Board at a Code of Conduct hearing.
5. To ensure that the complaint has merit to be considered and reviewed, at least one (1) other trustee must provide to the Board Chair within three (3) days of the notice in writing of the complaint being forwarded to all trustees, a letter indicating support for having the complaint be heard at a Code of Conduct hearing. Any trustee who forwards such a letter of support will not be disqualified from attending at and deliberating upon, the complaint at a Code of Conduct hearing convened to hear the matter, solely for having issued such a letter.
6. Where no letter supporting a hearing is received by the Board Chair in the three (3) day period referred to in section 5 above, the complaint will not be heard. The Board Chair will notify all other trustees in writing that no further action of the Board will occur.
7. Where a letter supporting a hearing is received by the Board Chair in the three (3) day period referred to in section 5 above, the Board Chair will convene, as soon as is reasonable, a special meeting of the Board to allow the complaining trustee to present his/her views of the alleged violation of the Code of Conduct.
8. At the special meeting of the Board, the Board Chair will indicate, at the commencement of the meeting, the nature of the business to be transacted and that the complaint will be heard in an in-camera session of the special meeting.

Without limiting what appears below, the Board Chair will ensure fairness in dealing with the complaint by adhering to the following procedures.

- 8.1 The Code of Conduct complaint will be conducted at an in-camera session, Code of Conduct hearing, of a special Board meeting convened for that purpose. All preliminary matters, including whether one (1) or more trustees may have a conflict of interest in hearing the presentations regarding the complaint, will be dealt with prior to the presentation of the complaint on behalf of the complaining trustee.
 - 8.2 The sequence of the Code of Conduct hearing will be:
 - 8.2.1 The complaining trustee will provide a presentation which may be written or oral or both;
 - 8.2.2 The respondent trustee will provide a presentation which may be written or oral or both;
 - 8.2.3 The complaining trustee will then be given an opportunity to reply to the respondent trustee's presentation;
 - 8.2.4 The respondent trustee will then be provided a further opportunity to respond to the complaining trustee's presentation and subsequent remarks;
 - 8.2.5 The remaining trustees of the Board will be given the opportunity to ask questions of both parties;
 - 8.2.6 The complaining trustee will be given the opportunity to make final comments; and
 - 8.2.7 The respondent trustee will be given the opportunity to make final comments.
 - 8.3 Following the presentation of the respective positions of the parties, the parties and all persons other than the remaining trustees who do not have a conflict of interest will be required to leave the room, and the remaining trustees will deliberate in private, without assistance from administration. The Board may, however, in its discretion, call upon legal advisors to assist them on points of law or the drafting of a possible resolution.
 - 8.4 If the remaining trustees in deliberation require further information or clarification, the parties will be reconvened and the requests made in the presence of both parties. If the information is not readily available, the presiding Chair may request a recess or, if necessary, an adjournment of the Code of Conduct hearing to a later date.
 - 8.5 In the case of an adjournment, no discussion by trustees whatsoever of the matters heard at the Code of Conduct hearing may take place until the meeting is reconvened.
 - 8.6 The remaining trustees in deliberation may draft a resolution indicating what action, if any, may be taken regarding the respondent trustee.
 - 8.7 The presiding Chair will reconvene the parties to the Code of Conduct hearing and request a motion to revert to the open meeting in order to pass the resolution.
 - 8.8 All documentation that is related to the Code of Conduct hearing will be returned to the Superintendent immediately upon conclusion of the Code of Conduct hearing and will be retained in accordance with legal requirements.
 - 8.9 The presiding Chair will declare the special Board meeting adjourned.
9. A violation of the Code of Conduct may result in the Board instituting, without limiting what follows, any or all of the following sanctions:
 - 9.1 Having the Board Chair write a letter of censure marked personal and confidential to the offending trustee, on the approval of a majority of those trustees present and allowed to vote at the special meeting of the Board;

- 9.2 Having a motion of censure passed by a majority of those trustees present and allowed to vote at the special meeting of the Board;
 - 9.3 Having a motion to remove the offending trustee from one (1), some or all Board committees or other appointments of the Board passed by a majority of those trustees present and allowed to vote at the special meeting of the Board, for a time not to exceed the trustee's term as trustee.
10. The Board may, in its discretion, make public its findings at the special meeting or at a regular meeting of the Board where the Board has not upheld the complaint alleging a violation of the Board's Code of Conduct or where there has been a withdrawal of the complaint or under any other circumstances that the Board deems reasonable and appropriate to indicate publicly its disposition of the complaint.
11. If a trustee is disqualified under section 87, 88, and 90 of the Education Act from remaining as a trustee of the Board and does not resign as required under section 90, the Board may by resolution declare the trustee to be disqualified from remaining a trustee or the Board may apply for originating notice to the Court of Queen's Bench for an Order:
- 11.1 Determining whether the trustee is qualified to remain as a trustee, or
 - 11.2 Declaring the trustee to be disqualified from remaining as a trustee.
